RE: Mail tampering; Harnett v.
CONWAY, 08-cv-1061 (JGK).
Dear Hon. Koeth,

I'm writing you this letter to inform you that the law library is willfully denying me writing paper and carbon paper due to my prison administrative grievance and my talk with Deputy Supt. Lira at Upstate C.F. about supplies due to my deadline. Pursuant to Bounds v. Smith, the state owes me a duty to provide me with supplies in order for me to have adequate access to the courts. The law library officer on 5/4/09 know that I have a deadline to make a reply to you for my habeas corpus stay motion which is due on May 8, 2009 in which you charged H to May 15, 2009.
→ see other side.

Furthermore, my mail at this facility for the month of April and May of 2009 is being tampered with and I'm unable to mail my mail out to government and administrative and to petition the government and administrative forum for redress of grievances. I need you to notify Brian Stischer, Commissioner of Docs and the Postmaster General in regards to my outgoing legal mail being tampered with.
